Norfolk, Va., November 20.—Another

long shot went over at the Jamestown

Jockey Club track to-day, when Bred-well won a six furlong event from Astrologer and Miss Moments. Bredwell was favored by the talent, and bookies

were showing as much as 100 to 1

against him, but the wise ones placed them by and blanketed their dollars on

Miss Moments and Astrologer. Bred-well won by two lengths.

Brier Path, a two-year-old, captured the Merchants' Selling Stakes from a likely lot of more experienced players.

Back Bay was the favorite, but the best he could do was to get place

money.

Lochiel won the Bay View purse, with Yellow Eyes at his heels. This was the only purse Guy Bredwell won

during his day, but he had entries in four of the seven races on the card.

Jack Denman won the third race,

a six-furlong event, although The Squire was supposed to be the good thing, and was played heavily. Monty

Fox had the race won up to the last quarter, when he weakened and Jack Denman shot in front. The Squire was third.

Federal, one of R. T. Wilson's best horses, and a real crack two-year-old,

celebrated his first appearance on the local track by winning a five and a half furlong event for youngsters. He was a favorite, and won all by himself.

Big Dipper added another victory to his long string by easily winning the first race of the day, in which fourteen two-year-olds started.

JOHN MARSHALL HAS GOOD RECORD

Should the eleven of John Marshall High School defeat the Norfolk High School in the game between them two teams in Norfolk Saturday, then but one team will stand in the way of the local claim to the championship of the State-Lynchburg and on the following Wednesday in Lynchburg that game will be fought out.

The local lads have had a remarkably successful season, not having lost a single game up to this time. Should they win the last two games they will finish with a clean slate—a remarkable record.

Captain Wendell, of Harvard, is one of the best plunging full backs in the game.

John Marshall to Play Lynchburg

Lynchburg, Va., November 20.—The General Athletic Association of the Lynchburg High School announced this afternoon that the John Marshall High School of Richmond had accepted the proposition for a football game here next Wednesday afternoon, in which the State high school championship will be decided.

In the centre of the ring, Mrs. McGibbon petulantly slapped the mare on the neck as though convinced that this unreasoning had ruined her chances for the cup. Evidently the judges thought the same way, for they gave the honor of being reserve to Nickel Plate to Miss Margaret E. Rouse's Merry Countess.

Miss Atterbury's two wins gave her a total of six blues for the show, all of which have been gained in the saddle classes by Nickel Plate and Patriotic. She is still lacking three firsts of equaling William H. Moore, who has gained nine of the chief ribbons, mostly in the harness classes, with an occasional incursion into the field of the ponies. There is a tie for third place among the winners between J. Campbell Thompson and Charles E. Burn.

WILLIE HOPPE IS STILL CHAMPION

Retains Title as Premier Cue-baller, Defeating Morningstar.

Slosser Gets Second Money.

New York, November 20.—Willie Hoppe was the world's billiard champion at 123 ball-line to-night at the Hotel Astor by defeating Orin Morningstar 59 to 35. This was the final game of a round-robin tournament. Hoppe having lost one game to Yamada, the Japanese expert, while Morningstar had four of the five games before to-night's contest. Hoppe outclassed his opponent from the start and ran out with an unfinished run of 15 in his 27th inning, making an average of 22 for the night's play, while Morningstar averaged 12-3-3. The result of this match leaves Yamada and Morningstar tied for third money, with four victories and three defeats.

They will play off the tie to-morrow night. Veteran George Slosser takes second place. He lost two games and won five.

CUBAN PLAYER HEADS THEM ALL

Marsans Picks Canella as King Bee Among World's Ball Tossers.

The greatest ball player of the present time is an Indian who lives in Cuba, according to Armando Marsans, of the Cincinnati Enquirer. He is thus described by the Red Star player, who ought to be a good judge of greatness in a ball player:

"I give you my word that the greatest ball player I ever looked upon was an Indian named Canella. Canella was of a strange Indian race that is supposed to be extinct—the Sibiwees of Cuba. Canella, who cannot be over twenty-seven, came out a few years ago, and at once became the marvel of Eastern Cuba. He was a pitcher, and a star on the club, but he was also a batsman, a lightning base runner and a clever outfielder. American clubs took it for granted that he was a negro and did not sign him. Finally some influential Cuban manager succeeded in making an American manager understand that Canella was no negro, and
